Doors to the library will open 6:30 with the forum scheduled to start at 7:00. There will be refreshments and visitors will have access to the candidates prior to start of the forum.

Berlin Mayor Gee Williams will be the moderator asking pre-prepared questions – visitors in the audience may also submit questions in writing for Mayor Williams to ask the candidate(s).

The Worcester County Democrats have scheduled a Forum for the 6th of March to give the Democratic candidates for the Congressional First District of Maryland an opportunity to acquaint themselves with Worcester County Democrats. The three candidates are John LaFerla, Kim Letke, and Wendy Rosen. One of the candidates will be selected in the Maryland Primary Election April 3 to challenge Andy Harris in Maryland's General Election November 6. The Forum will be held in the large meeting room in the Ocean Pines Library on Cathell Rd. Seating will be limited to 100 and no standing room will be available. The doors will open at 6:30 pm to begin seating. Inquiries can be made via the website www.worcestercountymd.com. or by mail to DCCWC, PO Box 34, Berlin, MD 21811.
